Recommended action

We reiterate our LT fundamental Hold recommendation for the Company's shares, but upgrade ST relative rating to Neutral from Underweight. We expect a further yoy deterioration of 3Q23 operating figures, though smaller than in the previous quarters. We see a chance for the Company's revenues and margins to rebound. We forecast 3Q23 EBITDA at PLN 104 million (down 14% yoy) which is a 2% forecast upgrade vs our earlier expectations.

3Q23 financial results preview

In 1Q23 and 2Q23 the Group's revenues in Poland/ Czechia/ Slovakia/ Romania/ Hungary/ other countries fell 30%/ 6%/ 7%/ 5%/ 31%/ 10% and 33%/ 5%/ 11%/ 5%/ 26%/ 2% r/r yoy, respectively. In the discussed quarter we expect these declines to soften. We assume the Group's sales in Poland/ Czechia/ Slovakia/ Romania/ Hungary/ other countries to reach PLN 78/ 35/ 13/ 44/ 8/ 22 million (down 21%/ 3%/ 8%/ 4%/ 15%/ 3% yoy).

In 1Q23 and 2Q23 the segments of batteries and accessories/ installation fittings/ heating systems registered a drop of quarterly sales at 16%/ 11%/ 36% and 11%/ 13%/ 51% yoy, respectively. We expect 3Q23 sales of the segments of batteries and accessories/ installation fittings/ heating systems to fall 6%/ 9%/ 33% yoy.

Ultimately, we expect a 12% yoy decline of the Group's sales in 3Q23 and assume that with this level of the revenues expected and current raw material prices the EBIT margin may slightly grow, to 12.8% vs 12.2% in 3Q22. The launch of a logistic center in Romania should gradually contribute positively to the Company's results due to expected savings on transport costs, better accessibility of goods, and expansion of heating systems in the Southern European markets.

Financial forecast

We slightly modify our FY financial forecasts incorporating 3Q23 expectations. The economic situation seems to stabilize which bodes well for demand in the coming quarters (the low base effect). The raw material prices are relatively favorable for the Company's margins.

Valuation

Our valuation for Ferro falls under the impact of (i) the risk free rate revision (at 5.9%, previously 5.4%), (ii) valuation horizon forward shift in time, (iv) peer valuation update, and (v) slight modification of financial forecasts. Our 12M EFV constituting a 50%–50% mix of the DCF FCFF method and peer-relative valuation, stays at PLN 30.1 per share. The DCF FCF/peer-relative valuation yields PLN 37/ 24 per share (previously PLN 34/ 26 per share).

Market environment

The situation on housing markets in the region is rather feeble.

According to Poland's CSO,

- in 2022 (i) 200,000 dwellings were started, down 28% yoy, (ii) 239,000 dwellings were delivered, up 2% yoy, and (iii) 297,000 building permits were issued, down 13%,
- in 1-3Q23 (i) 139,000 dwellings were started, down 16% yoy, (ii) 161,000 dwellings were delivered, down 3% yoy, and (iii) 174,000 building permits were issued, down 26% yoy.

According to the Czech Statistical Office,

- in 2022 (i) 42,000 dwellings were started, down 6% yoy, (ii) 39,000 dwellings were delivered, up 14% yoy, and (iii) 86,000 building permits were issued, down 5%,
- in 1H23, (i) 18,000 dwellings were started, down 20% yoy, (ii) 18,000 dwellings were delivered, up 3% yoy, and (iii) 20,000 building permits were issued, down 11% yoy.

According to CEIC DATA, in Romania

- 105,000 building permits were issued, down 7% yoy, in 2022;
- in 1H23, 39,000 building permits were issued, down 17% yoy.

Strategy

According to the Company's management estimations, the implementation of the F1R2 strategy (without acquisitions) will allow Ferro to generate PLN 1,400 million and PLN 193 million of FY26 revenues and EBITDA, respectively, with annual capex not exceeding PLN 30 million. Our FY26 forecast assumes lower top line and EBITDA (at PLN 1,139 million and PLN 161 million, respectively). The Strategy F1R2 assumes a dividend payout in the amount not less than 50% of the Company's NI in the stable market and financial situation including, among other things, the consolidated ND/ EBITDA ratio staying  $\leq 2.5x$ .

Risk factors

7. Unfavorable/volatile FX rates (currency risk when PLN and CZK weaken against US$ and EUR)
8. Lack of stability in the region
9. Temporary higher inventories
10. High interest rates

Catalysts

1. Expansion in European markets
2. Higher demand in Poland and neighboring countries
3. Expansion in European markets
4. Strengthening position on the existing markets
5. Launch of a new logistic center in southern Europe
6. New products (expanding the product offer)
7. Favorable FX rates and raw materials prices
8. Acquisitions in attractive segments
9. Implementation of the adopted strategy F1R2

DM BOŚ S.A. generally values the covered non bank companies via two methods: comparative method and DCF method (discounted cash flows). The advantage of the former is the fact that it incorporates the current market assessment of the value of the company's peers. The weakness of the comparative method is the risk that the valuation benchmark may be mispriced. The advantage of the DCF method is its independence from the current market valuation of the comparable companies. The weakness of this method is its high sensitivity to undertaken assumptions, especially those related to the residual value calculation. Please note that we also resort to other valuation techniques (e.g. NAV-, DDM- or SOTP-based), should it prove appropriate in a given case.

KEY TO INVESTMENT RANKINGS

This is a guide to expected price performance in absolute terms over the next 12 months:

Buy – fundamentally undervalued (upside to 12M EFV in excess of the cost of equity) + catalysts which should close the valuation gap identified;
Hold – either (i) fairly priced, or (ii) fundamentally undervalued/overvalued but lacks catalysts which could close the valuation gap;
Sell – fundamentally overvalued (12M EFV < current share price + 1-year cost of equity) + catalysts which should close the valuation gap identified.

This is a guide to expected relative price performance:

Overweight – expected to perform better than the benchmark (WIG) over the next quarter in relative terms
Neutral – expected to perform in line with the benchmark (WIG) over the next quarter in relative terms
Underweight – expected to perform worse than the benchmark (WIG) over the next quarter in relative terms

The recommendation tracker presents the performance of DM BOŚ S.A.'s recommendations. A recommendation expires on the day it is altered or on the day 12 months after its issuance, whichever comes first.

Relative performance compares the rate of return on a given recommended stock in the period of the recommendation's validity (i.e. from the date of issuance to the date of alteration or – in case of maintained recommendations – from the date of issuance to the current date) in a relation to the rate of return on the benchmark in this time period. The WIG index constitutes the benchmark. For recommendations that expire by an alteration or are maintained, the ending values used to calculate their absolute and relative performance are: the stock closing price on the day the recommendation expires/ is maintained and the closing value of the benchmark on that date. For recommendations that expire via a passage of time, the ending values used to calculate their absolute and relative performance are: the average of the stock closing prices for the day the recommendation elapses and four directly preceding sessions and the average of the benchmark's closing values for the day the recommendation expires and four directly preceding sessions.

Interest Spread =  $(\text{interest income}/\text{average interest earning assets})/(\text{interest cost}/\text{average interest bearing liabilities})$

Net provision charge =  $\text{provisions created} - \text{provisions released}$

DM BOŚ S.A. generally values the covered banks via two methods: comparative method and fundamental target fair P/E and target fair P/BV multiples method. The advantage of the former is the fact that it incorporates the current market assessment of the value of the company's peers. The weakness of the comparative method is the risk that the valuation benchmark may be mispriced. The advantage of the fundamental target fair P/E and target fair P/BV multiples method is its independence of the current market valuation of the comparable companies. The weakness of this method is its high sensitivity to undertaken assumptions, especially those related to the residual value calculation. Assumptions used in valuation can change, influencing thereby the level of the valuation. Among the most important assumptions are: GDP growth, forecasted level of inflation, changes in interest rates and currency prices, employment level and change in wages, demand on the analysed company products, raw material prices, competition, standing of the main customers and suppliers, legislation changes, etc. Changes in the environment of the analysed company are monitored by analysts involved in the preparation of the recommendation, estimated, incorporated in valuation and published in the recommendation whenever needed.
